In a Salute to Annabel Tully

Inspirational Artist Outreaching from Australia

Author – Nell Arnold

“Opulence”

Digital photography Marian Betts 2011

A drop of falling water
catching first ray of sun,
lost in ocean's depths
matching with grain of sand
pearl processing in oyster bed

In the silence of sorrow,
One often travels alone.

Yet in the Universe of the Before
And Continuing, are whispers of hope, Images of resilience and recovery,
And those whose experience
Have taken the prior road.

And so it is with this understanding Of the Before and the Continuing Marian Betts shares her images

Light Captured in Crystals of Ice
On her window pane.

Out of the cold darkness
she witnesses beauty unfolding like wings of gold,

Teardrops crystallized in Ice Images, Forever? No!
Melted by sun's rays they become

A drop of falling water
catching first ray of sun,
lost in ocean's depths,
matching with grain of sand
pearl processing in oyster bed

Hope Whispers Again

This Tribute is to

Annabel Tully

Contemporary Landscape Artist

By

Marian Betts of the USA

How is the story told of devastation by long term drought, the restorative powers of rain,
the re-destruction by flood.

The personal journey is of love,
finding partner,
finding sense of homeland and introducing five little bubs.

The now known story
Is the Challenge to Courage,
From City to Isolation by Bush
From Professional Life as Teacher
Principal, Community Leader

To Cancer Patient
Dealing with Surgery, Chemo, Radiation Surgery Original and Reconstructive Returning to the Land

The Story is Triumphant
The Artist of Brush and Lens
Tells Not Her Story
But Outreaches to the World
An Inspiration Out of Australia

Hope Whispers Again.

This Story Then
Is Not About A Woman
Or Cancer
Or Drought, Floods, Desolation and Distance

The Story is about Courage Gained Through the Power of Inspiration Within Self and Outreaching to Others

And is recognized by women, their partners and friends from around the world.

From the Vastness of Rural Australia “A Woman Paints”

But the continuing story is -----

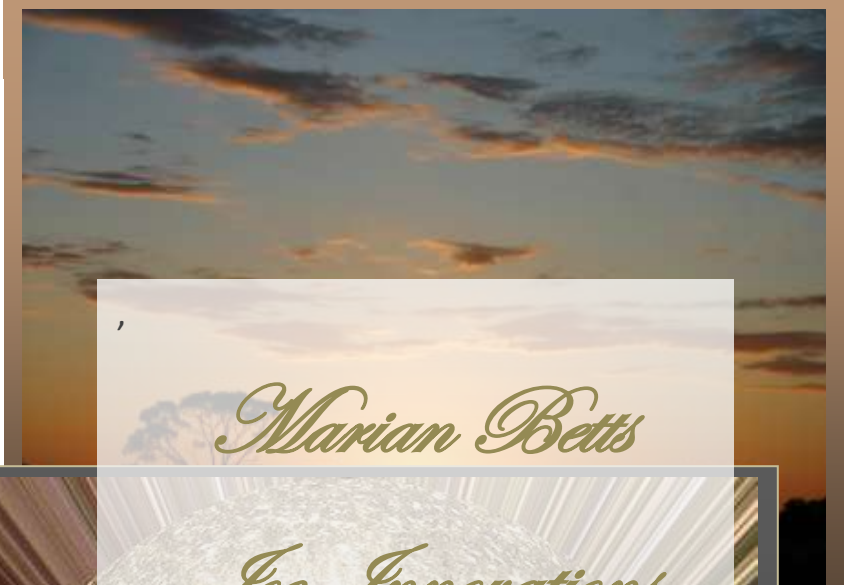

“A Woman Inspires the World”

Recognition of the courage of a young mum and her extraordinary ability to capture the landscape through lens and brush so those who never heard of the Channel Country of Queensland now visit in their hearts and minds.
